

Going to the Pantomime

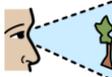

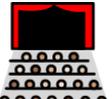

The  is a  fun  show for  everyone to  enjoy.

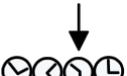

There will be  music,  flashing  lights and  special effects.

The  costumes and  scenery can  be very  colourful.

The  pantomime can  be very  noisy.

You  will  see  characters  sing and  dance  on stage.

The  characters will  talk to  the  audience  during the  show.

Sometimes  the  audience can  answer  the  characters.

The  characters might  walk  around  the  audience.

 The audience cheer, shout, laugh and clap at the good characters.

 The audience 'boo' and 'hiss' at the bad characters.

 You can join in if you want to.

 The audience shout things to help out the characters.

 If a character says 'oh no they didn't' you can reply

 'oh yes they did!'.

 If a character hides you can help find them by shouting

 'behind you!'.

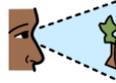

Some

of the things

you

see

or hear

might

make

you

feel

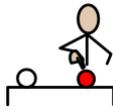

happy

or sad.

This

is okay.

Mostly

the

pantomime

is

just about

having fun.
